

SHANNON LAVERY

Associate Project Coordinator

Leadership is a way of life, professionally and personally for Shannon. She loves work that has meaning, especially being in a workplace that challenges her to be her best, step out of her comfort zone, and explore new opportunities.

Shannon serves on our Client Services team, taking care of each client's individual needs. She pays attention to detail to ensure everyone receives the best possible service, whether she is administering assessments, updating the client on leaders' progress to completion, or providing creative solutions for individuals' needs. She uses her communication skills and deep passion for meaningful work to develop long-lasting relationships with clients.

While in college, Shannon worked for a law firm as a file clerk, organizing office operations and working directly with partners, then later as a paralegal. After 12 years, Shannon left her job to find more meaning in her professional career. She spent 7 years working with The Leadership Challenge® and Fine Points Leadership clients until she joined the FlashPoint team.

Shannon has a bachelor's degree in business administration with a minor in marketing.

When she's not working, Shannon enjoys yoga and coffee to start her mornings, spending time with her fur baby Jax at the dog park, enjoying the outdoors, nurturing her indoor and outdoor plants, making healthy home-cooked meals, spending time with her family, finding new restaurants to try, and exploring the city.

Shannon is a CS on the DiSC® Profile.
