Adam Reinhart is a dynamic facilitator and coach who specializes in nurturing teams and individuals to realize their full potential. With a rich tapestry of experiences spanning various countries, cultures, and industries, Adam leverages his expansive grasp on learning and team dynamics to guide and energize leaders and teams.

Adam has experience across the leadership spectrum, regularly influencing leadership groups from diverse industry backgrounds, leading multi-national teams in the fast-paced world of hospitality, and artfully navigating the sales arena in both large and small organizations.

As a coach and facilitator, Adam uses his upbeat and energetic style to create an engaging environment that allows teams and individuals to unlock the potential within themselves without worrying about judgment. His aptitude for coaching manifested early on as an Assistant Division 1 tennis coach. His knack for intuitively connecting with his clients and his innovative coaching strategies enable clients to push themselves toward their highest potential.

Adam is fluent in English, French, and Spanish. After work, you can find Adam either playing tennis or golf. He's also a social butterfly who never turns down the chance to spend the afternoon having a drink or a meal with friends. When he's home, you can find Adam reading a science fiction or fantasy novel or rolling around on the carpet with his corgi, Penelope. Adam is fluent in English, French and Spanish.
