

ANNIE MURPHY

Associate Project Coordinator

Annie believes it is important to foster healthy and fruitful relationships with clients and coworkers alike. She places a high importance on growth, both in a professional capacity and on a personal level. To her, we are teaching and learning things that can change the world. Her passion for growth and development led her to work with The Leadership Practices Inventory®, administering assessments and working closely with clients across a variety of industries and sizes.

You'll find Annie supporting clients and co-workers from behind the scenes. Attention to detail and precision are her strengths, which helps ensure a positive experience for clients. But most of all, she believes in making that one extra effort – it may seem small to her, but it can be so much bigger to someone on the receiving end.

Annie attended the University of Kentucky and majored in Psychology with a minor in French.

After work, Annie loves to laugh, read, watch movies, watch her boys play basketball, and bake with her daughter. She spent 2000-2013 as a stay at home mom and her husband is currently on staff with Young Life. She and her family spend a lot of time with high school and college students. Annie's passion is being with college girls and helping them know they are loved and valued and there is a plan for their lives.

Annie is an S on the DiSC® Profile.
